

Irish Skin Foundation

Supporting people with skin conditions in Ireland

Public Compliance Statement

- The Irish Skin Foundation is committed to complying with the Statement for Guiding Principles for Fundraising and formally discussed and adopted the Statement at a meeting of the governing body.
- The Irish Skin Foundation confirms its commitment to the principles set out in the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising by a statement to that effect in its annual report.
- The Irish Skin Foundation has a Donor Charter which is consistent with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising.
- The Irish Skin Foundation regularly monitors compliance with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising and compliance reports are received regularly by the governing body.
- The Irish Skin Foundation considers the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising when planning all fundraising activity.
- The Irish Skin Foundation has a policy on working with third party fundraisers.(If applicable)
- The Irish Skin Foundation provides honest, open and transparent disclosure when fundraising from the public.
- The Irish Skin Foundation has appointed a member of the governing body and/or a senior member of staff to be responsible for compliance with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising.
- The Irish Skin Foundation ensures that fundraising staff and volunteers are provided with the relevant information and support for implementing the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising.
- The Irish Skin Foundation has a feedback and complaints procedure consistent with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising.
- The Irish Skin Foundation prepares financial reports consistent with the requirements of the Charities Act 2009 which include a statement concerning the extent to which control of the Foundation is independent of its funding sources.
- The Irish Skin Foundation is accessible to the public through a number of readily available contact options.